

Group Chairman Dato' Peter Ng in discussion with the representatives of St. Elisabeth University Kuala Lumpur, 30 June 2010 - The Group Chairman of USCI Dato' Peter Ng recently visited Bratislava to sign on behalf of the University an MOA with St. Elisabeth University in Bratislava, Slovakia, EU. The St. Elisabeth University Rector, Prof. Stephen Galbavý hosted the event which was witnessed by the University's founder, Prof. Dr. Krčméry Vladimír, editor-in-chief Publication to the University, Prof. Peter G. Fredor-Freybergh, researcher and associate to the University, Prof. Claus Muss, and our own Prof. Selvaraj Subramaniam, Adjunct Professor of the School of Anti-Aging, Aesthetic and Regenerative Medicine, Faculty of Medical Sciences.

Under this MOA, the two universities will collaborate in teaching and research programmes focusing on anti-aging/preventive medicine, aesthetic, regenerative and environmental medicine.

St. Elisabeth University is a private fully-fledged university consisting of numerous schools spread across Bratislava, with the addition and extension of schools in some parts of Africa and Cambodia